Dentists Do Work For Soldiers Free.

The dentists are furnishing all materials and devoting one hour's time to each Selective Service man, without cost to the Government or the man. The work that we are doing for these men is as follows: Large cavities (which prevent proper mastication) and may be filled without pulp treatment. Sealing and polishing teeth that show irritation from calcific deposits. Extraction of all badly broken or diseased teeth. Extraction of all teeth that are seriously involved with pyorrhea and all crowded and suspicious third molars. Amalgam and cement will be used in all cavities.

A. D. Byrne, Director for Jackson County.

WAR NOTICE.

All registrants must report at once to this Board any change in their status, caused either by change in number of dependents; taking up different work since they were classified; change from one farm to another; or change of occupation. Failure to so report will result in reclassification, loss of valuable rights, and perhaps immediate induction into military service. Local Board for Jackson Co.

HOW THE PRESS VIEWS THE SENATORIAL RACE.

another man his place, then by the same token and for the same reason. President Wilson could be turned out. They are in perfect accord and both have been equally faithful and patriotic.

The foregoing are some of the reasons why the Courier believes it our patriotic duty to return Senator Shields to the Senate. We believe they are not only sufficient but compelling.

So far the opponents of Senator Shields have offered but three reasons why he should be defeated. Briefly they are:

1st. Gov. Rye wants the place.
2nd. Maj. Stahlman is the personal friend and supporter of Shields.

3rd. Some eight or ten years ago, in the unfortunate political upheaval that so sorely disturbed and divided the party, Senator Shields ran for Supreme Judge (not a political office) as an independent, since which time he has been a loyal, consistent democrat, having been elected to his present position by the regular democratic caucus, and having openly and loyally supported McMillin for Governor in 1912.

Can these reasons be regarded as good and sufficient by any fair-minded, patriotic man. In this time of national peril, to defeat Shields? We think not. The fact that the critics of Senator Shields do not assail his record, but instead harrangue the people about Major Stahlman and his alleged disloyalty, which can not be an issue, is proof conclusive that his record is not only good but invulnerable. The people will judge Shields by his record—his votes as a senator—and they will not condemn him because somebody happens to be far or against him.

The man who would now seek to rekindle the fires of factionalism, the man who would try to revive party bitterness for political effect, is very much akin to a traitor and should not be tolerated. Factionalism is buried; "politics is adjourned."—Carthage Courier.

Senator John K. Shields has made an excellent representative in Congress. He has won distinction for himself and his activity in behalf of the public welfare has proven a credit to the state. He should be given endorsement. There is every indication that at the primary on August 1st he will be re-nominated as the democratic candidate for Senator for Tennessee by an overwhelming vote. Summer county democrats will roll up a big Shields majority at the August primary.—Summer Co. News.

Senator Shields should have been given the second term without opposition, but the indications are that he will sweep the State in the coming primary. Everybody seems to accept the suggestion of President Wilson that "politics is adjourned" until after the war except Gov. Rye who has advanced no reason why Senator Shields should be replaced except to give Rye the office. Senator Shields is up at Washington with Wilson day by day and is often called in consultation by the President, being recognized as the greatest lawyer in the Senate. There is no valid reason why Senator Shields should be replaced by Gov. Rye and the people will express themselves according August 1st.—Alexandria Times.

Not that we have so much antipathy to "swapping" horses in the middle of the stream, but we do draw a line when it comes to swapping a blooded horse of fairly good qualities to one that knows no difference between his friend and those who curry him when there is a probable service, or exchanging a faithful burden bearer for one that moves when his mind leads him whether too late for the outgoing train or not, or whether your mother's funeral has passed hours ago. The Expositor has passed hours ago. The Expositor and its Editor are in the fight for all there is in it for the nomination and election of Sen. Shields. We are for holding a man there big enough for the job. Sparta Expositor.

IN MEMORIAM.

fare has ended and peacefully he sunk to rest.

Therefore, be it resolved by Tannehill Lodge No. 133 F. & A. M., that we bow in humble submission, and accept with solemn feeling of sorrow and sadness this dispensation of the Grand Master above in removing from us our zealous and noble brother. That in his demise the craft has lost a splendid co-laborer, the county a noble citizen, the community a true friend, his sorrowing wife a good and dutiful husband, and his children a kind and loving father.

Be it further resolved, that we herein tender to the sorrowing and disconsolate wife and children our sincer sympathy and condolence in this sad hour of bereavement, and that the secretary be directed to deliver to them a copy of these resolutions as an expression of the same.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Lodge and that the brethren wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

This June 30, 1918.

Committee.

Important to All Who Have Not Registered.

From and after July 10, 1918, any man who should have registered and failed to do so, will be treated as having wilfully attempted to evade military service, and will be given an order number so high as to insure his immediate induction into military service. This notice is issued for the purpose of calling attention of the public generally to this matter. Any man who so failed to register would do well to investigate his age. We can do so for him if our attention is called to the matter at once.

The law carries a heavy penalty for any person who knows of failure of any one to register, and who fails to report it.

The first payment fell due on the 1st day of July, so if you have not paid your first installment which is one fourth of the amount pledged, you are requested to do so at once. Make payments to Charley Brown, Granville, or W. F. Sadler, Gainesboro. This is important.

MEMPHIS DRUMMER TELLS TRUTH ON VIN HEPATICA.

National Refining Co., Representative Says Nine Doctors Failed to Give Relief-Takes Vin Hepatica and Says it's a Wonderful Medicine.

"I was so troubled with my throat and stomach for a year and a half that I had become very much weakened," says Mr. J. H. McCollum, traveling representative for the National Refining Co., 531 Walker Ave., Memphis, Tenn.

"Could only walk a block or two without having to sit down to rest. Since taking Vin Hepatica, I now walk two miles with less effort. My appetite was no good, but now it is fine. Vin Hepatica even makes me hungry an hour after I eat. Before taking Vin Hepatica my stomach could not retain what I forced on it. But now I eat anything without any bad effects whatever.

"I tried nine of the best doctors I could find without receiving any permanent benefits. I was going down all the time, but I have gained several pounds since I started taking the Vin Hepatica prescription. I certainly would not be without it as long as I am improving as I am." Come in and get a bottle of this truly wonderful nature medicine on our recommendation.—L. B. Anderson, Gainesboro, Tenn.
